Candidate (b) (6),

Good afternoon. I am emailing as a backup to the voicemail I left to notify you that you've been identified as a good candidate for the Foundation Program.

Please reply to this email or call back at (b) (6) to let me know if you are interested in this program and if you give permission to have your contact information submitted to the program for coordination. Below are a quick explanation of Foundation and a link to the Foundation website.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

What is the Foundation?

The U.S. Naval Academy Foundation, Inc., also assists promising candidates who are not appointed in their first try for admission. This nonprofit organization awards a limited number of sponsorships for post-high school preparatory studies to enhance those candidates' qualifications for admission. The Naval Academy's admissions board automatically recommends candidates to the Foundation for sponsorship consideration. No special request is required.

Below is what I send to candidates after they are put in the Foundation Pool from the Admissions Board.

Good Afternoon [NAME],

I apologize as I prefer to make these notifications via phone, but I wanted to give you the good news as soon as possible.

Congratulations, you were selected for the USNA Foundation Program!

Pending your approval, I will forward your information to the USNA Foundation Office and they will contact you with more information regarding this opportunity.

Please respond to this email with: "Yes, I approve my personal information being forwarded to the USNA Foundation." Foundation will contact you with additional information on the program.

Since you have applied to all of your eligible nomination sources, you have done everything you can with regards to receiving a nomination. You do not need to worry about the part in the letter from your congressional representative about NAPS and the foundation program, you are not being considered for those programs because you already have an LOA.

You may still be able to receive an appointment at this point. Please be patient as we work through the rest of the process, you will know for sure no later than April 15th.

Sincerely,

Dear Lt. ((b) (6)),

I received my LOA and USNA acceptance in early October. I am from Virginia, District 10, and had all of my MOC interviews by mid November. I just found out that I did not receive any of the three MOC nominations despite having strong interviews (as I was told). I also applied for the VP nomination and am still waiting to here back. I have contacted my BOG officer and his advice was to contact you. My first choice (actually, only choice as my MOC's only allowed one choice to be listed) with all three MOC's was USNA. I also followed up with each MOC office coordinator to inform them of my LOA and interest. As of now, are there any additional steps I should or could pursue? Are there any other possibilities for me to attend USNA or not?

I was confused a bit in the response letter from my congressional Representative (Barbara Comstock) as in the letter it stated "that the Service Academy Advisory Board has asked the U.S. Naval Academy Preparatory School for consideration for you to attend their preparatory school or be awarded an academy graduate foundation scholarship" and this has left me confused as I already have an LOA, Acceptance, and DODMERB medical clearance.

Basically, I just want to know if I have a path forward with my current LOA. I remain very interested in the USNA. At the same time, I am fortunate to consider other options in my quest to serve as a professional military officer. I have been offered an appointment to the USCGA and owe a decision by May 1st.

Unsure of what my options on the table with USNA are at this time, and what the value of my LOA was, I am turning to you for some advice.

Respectfully,
